CHEVROLET Take a look at the price-tag on a Chevrolet—and you'll probably look at it again, to make sure.

$445? Yes—you were right the first time, $445! It seems almost too good to be true! A car as big and substantial and solidly built as this new Chevrolet! A Fisher Body car, too—with No Draft Ventilation and every other comfort and convenience that goes with the Fisher name. And a billion-mile-proved six—that performs better and stands up better and wears better than any other low-priced car you ever saw! All for one of the lowest motor car prices in the world.

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICH.

Prices range from $445 to $565, f. o. b. Flint, Mich. Special equipment extra. Low delivered prices and easy G.M.A.C. terms. A General Motors Value.

"A Fisher body! Fisher Ventilation! Safety plate glass. A valve-in-head six! And look at the price: $445!"

Father DARKLEAF'S Column
BY C.H.R.

Much of the success of the old-time music show tonight depends on whether or not that charming old Confederate veteran, C. H. Coleman, gets up on the stage and does his song and dance! Come on out "Charlie!".

• • •

W. P. Gills knows his wheat. Yesterday dawning he fetched to town some wheat stalks measuring five feet six inches.

• • •

Norman H. Davis seems to be very close to the Roosevelt administration and is styled "ambassador-at-large" to Europe. At present he is at Geneva and has promised the European diplomats that the U. S. will enter into a "consultative pact" and "abandon neutrality rights to maintain peace." F. D., the American people don't want any alliances with Europe and you'd better send this Davis guy to the Sandwich Islands where he can make his alliances with ham and eggs for all we care. Seems we once had a slogan called, "America First."

• • •

Father Darkleaf takes off his hat to two of the finest teachers Virginia ever had, Miss Eddie Hardy and Miss Dean Johns, who are retiring from Appomattox schools after a combined record that totals over one-hundred years. God-speed Miss Eddie and Miss Dean!

• • •

Whats' your record, Mr. Business man? Our shop has turned out more work in the last two weeks than in any other two weeks since the depression started. Read the ads in this issue if you don't think SOMEBODY is going after business—and getting it. Let's all get in on the march to the NEW ERA!

• • •

Father Darkleaf will never feel just the same after seeing a recent picture of himself. I had no ideah! Actually it appears that I am getting baldheaded. Unmistakable signs of great open spaces on my editorial pate haunt me day and night and I dash in desperation to the ineffable protection offered by a hat.

• • •

And then every week I have to pluck out two or three gray hairs, Wotta life. Seems like only yesterday that I'd look upon Summer as an endless spree of bathing and dancing and boating. Now it's work, bridge and occasional golf. Heck, I'm just eight years out of collich. But to date the only thing that stuck was going without garters. No garters have encircled my manly ankles since 1921, except for a few weeks after Christmas when someone gave me a pair. Which further recalls that in all the eight years in which I have been columneering every week, there've been darn few in which I didn't write about myself. Clear down to the end of the column, like this.
